StrataDx appoints Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President of Sales and Marketing, New Board Member

Industry veterans Jim Agnello, Greg Richard, Steven E. Casper join anatomic pathology laboratory

Lexington, MA (October 3, 2012) - StrataDx, a leader in anatomic pathology services, announced today the appointments of Jim Agnello as Chief Financial Officer, Greg Richard as Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing, and Steve Casper to its Board of Directors. StrataDx provides clinicians with high-quality pathology services in the fields of dermatology, urology, podiatry, oral pathology, gastroenterology and gynecology.

Jim Agnello, CPA, joins StrataDx as the Chief Financial Officer and brings over two decades of financial & laboratory operational expertise. Mr. Agnello served as the Chief Financial Officer of Clariant and Nodality and most recently, as the Vice President of Operations for Healthtronics, Inc. He also spent 18 years with SmithKline Beecham in a variety of senior financial positions. Jim has a Master's Degree in Accounting from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey.

Greg Richard joins the company as the Executive Vice President of Sales & Marketing and brings extensive senior sales leadership expertise in not only the laboratory industry, but in Managed Care, Biotech, and Clinical Trials as well. Most recently, he was the Chief Commercial Officer at Signal Genetics, a specialty molecular testing Company, and served previously as the Sales Officer for LabCorp's Northeast Division and the Vice President of Managed Care and Global Sales and Marketing for Clinical Trials at Quest Diagnostics. Greg received a B.A. from Westminster College.

Steven E. Casper has been named to the board of StrataDx. He is currently the Chief Executive Officer of National Dentex Corporation. Mr. Casper has significant experience developing successful health care organizations. Prior to National Dentex, Mr. Casper was involved in the founding and development of AmeriPath and Dermpath Diagnostics, both leading providers of pathology services. Mr. Casper served as the President of DermPath Diagnostics, a division of Quest Diagnostics, Inc. and previously held senior executive roles at AmeriPath and Summit Partners. Steven received a B.A from Boston College.

“These appointments represent a significant milestone for StrataDx. Greg and Jim both have stellar track records of driving growth and generating value in their respective organizations.” said Pat Noland, Chief Executive Officer, StrataDx.

Richard Novak, Chairman of the StrataDx Board of Directors adds, “We are pleased to welcome Steven to the Board. His breadth of knowledge and expertise will contribute to the ongoing evolution of StrataDx as a best in class pathology services organization.”
